

THE TEXAS COMPANY
MONTEBELLO LABORATORY

TEST OF STRATCO SEPARATING WHEEL

March 15, 1947

THE TEXAS COMPANY
MONTEBELLO LABORATORY

TEST OF STRATCO SEPARATING WHEEL
March 15, 1947

INTRODUCTION

During the past two week period the Montebello synthesis reactor has been out of service for the purpose of adding 30 feet to the height of the standpipe system, a change required to permit the use of low density catalyst. During this period a preliminary test of the separating performance of the Stratco separating wheel was carried out. The present report presents the results of this test.