

REFERENCES

1. Mills, G. A. Gas from Coal, Fuel of the Future. Environmental Science and Technology, Dec. 1971, pp. 1178-1183.
2. Forney, A. J., W. P. Haynes, and R. C. Corey. Present Status of the Synthane Coal-to-Gas Process. Paper 3586, AIME Meeting, New Orleans, La., October 1971, 4 pp.
3. Corey, R. C. Bureau of Mines Synthane Process: Research and Development in Converting Coal to Substitute Natural Gas. Presented at the Second Synthetic Fuels from Coal Conference, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Okla., May 1-2, 1972, 23 pp.
4. Field, J. H., H. E. Benson, G. E. Johnson, J. S. Tosh, and A. J. Forney. Pilot-Plant Studies of the Hot-Carbonate Process for Removing Carbon Dioxide and Hydrogen Sulfide. BuMines Bull. 597, 1962, 44 pp.
5. Forney, A. J., R. J. Demski, D. Bienstock, and J. H. Field. Recent Catalyst Developments in the Hot Gas Recycle Process. BuMines Rept. of Inv. 6609, 1965, 32 pp.
6. Haynes, W. P., J. J. Elliott, A. J. Youngblood, and A. J. Forney. Operation of a Sprayed Raney Nickel Tube Wall Reactor for Production of a High-Btu Gas. Preprints, Division of Fuel Chemistry, ACS, vol. 14, No. 4, Sept. 1970, pp. 26-48.
7. Frith, J. F. S. Engineering Aspects of the Synthane Coal Gasification Process. Presented at the Second Synthetic Fuels from Coal Conference, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Okla., May 1-2, 1972, 58 pp.

8. Kostenbader, P. D., and J. W. Flechsteiner. Biological Oxidation of Coke Plant Weak Ammonia Liquor. Journal of Water Pollution Control Federation, Chicago, Ill., Sept. 22-27, 1968.
9. McCann, C. R., J. J. Demeter, A. A. Orning, and D. Bienstock. Combustion of Pulverized Char. Bound Proceedings of 162nd National Meeting of ACS, Div. of Fuel Chemistry, Washington, D.C., Sept. 13-17, 1971, vol. 15, No. 2, pp. 96-105.
10. Ludberg, J. E. Removal of Hydrogen Sulfide from Coke Oven Gas by the Stretford Process. Presented at 64th Annual Meeting of the Air Pollution Control Assoc., Atlantic City, N.J., June 27-July 2, 1971. 27 pp.